

Research and intelligence solutions

When businesses need data analyzed, or research and investigations completed, accuracy and efficiency are top priorities. We provide research and intelligence solutions that include specialized investigative techniques and risk assessment consultations. Our goal is to deliver the most reliable and accurate information through intelligence gathering and comprehensive data analysis.

Global solutions, local expertise

Sedgwick is a leading global provider of technology-enabled risk, benefits and integrated business solutions. We provide a broad range of resources tailored to our clients' needs in casualty, property, marine, benefits, brand protection and other lines. By delivering global solutions backed by local expertise, our services keep pace with the evolving challenges of our diverse and varied clients. Leveraging the knowledge and experience gained from working with the world's leading organizations, we continually adapt and advance our products and services.

Sedgwick's research and intelligence services were created to ensure data accuracy, efficiency and reliability. Our solutions include distinctive and specialized research, preservation tools and data analysis. Our team includes professionally trained and certified experts who have experience working with sensitive data, public information, databases and regulatory records. We offer services internationally to law firms, financial institutions, insurance agencies, multinational corporations, and regulatory bodies.

Our services include:

- Due diligence investigations for mergers and acquisitions, pre-investment and pre-employment
- Evidence gathering for pre-trial matters (civil and criminal)
- Asset recovery and subrogation
- Financial and background investigations
- Trademark investigations
- Skip traces (locates)
- Internet (online footprint) investigations

A better approach to research

Sedgwick's approach is different. We know that accuracy and efficiency matter to our clients. Our focus is on exploring every possible avenue available through our team of recognized industry experts. We work closely with our clients to ensure that all aspects of an investigation are met, and that information is protected and documented.
