

Captive solutions

For some businesses, traditional insurance isn't the best fit or may not be an option. If that's the case for your company, then let's talk captives. Sedgwick's captive solutions give you ownership, control, and strategic claims and risk services to help drive profits.

Whether you are starting a new captive or would like support with an existing one, we can take on the challenge so you can focus on running your organization. With Sedgwick's captive team, you'll have a partner with the knowledge, track record and breadth of services that you can count on.

When losses or claims occur, you need experts who can manage each situation quickly and effectively. Whether it is a physical property loss or business interruption claim, a workers' compensation injury or an auto, general or professional liability claim, or even a product warranty claim, we can help. Our team has the expertise and advanced technology to manage all types of claims, and help you achieve the best possible results for your captive and its members.

Working with Sedgwick offers key advantages including:

- Direct relationships with fronting and reinsurance markets
- A dedicated captive program management team servicing multiple lines
- Claims management for all property and casualty risk types
- A full suite of complementary services including managed care, OSHA and Medicare compliance, special investigation unit, specialized field and remote loss adjusting and inspections, forensic accounting, repair solutions and more
- Captive loss and risk control services
- Premium audit services
- Technology that supports client and policyholder communication and data needs

Experts in captive management and technology-enabled claims and risk solutions

Expertise – Captives require a collaborative approach and frequent communications to ensure success. We have the expertise to help develop customized solutions to address the overall management of the program. We have a dedicated team focused on captive and program affinity services, allowing our partners to continually analyze results and provide input to improve performance.

Technology – We offer a fully integrated, multiline system and effective interfaces for virtually any kind of claims program. With 1,400 IT professionals, our capabilities and expertise are rivaled by few in the industry. With our proprietary suite of tools, clients can access real-time claim information, run standard and ad hoc reports, set their own system alerts and more.

They can also easily visualize claims trends using our advanced analytics reports. In addition, our dedicated security team ensures our clients' data is safe and secure.

Comprehensive services – We provide an array of services to support our partners in delivering on their reputation within the marketplace. Risk management services include claims handling, safety and loss control, underwriting support, premium audits, repair services and more. Captive services include full administration of your program in all states for multiple lines.

Education and knowledge – We support continued education and knowledge building in the captive and insurance marketplace, and our thought leaders continually monitor issues and changes within the industry.
